

RAINFOREST BUSH WALKING RULES

Please conduct yourself as a welcome guest when necessary remind others of this important rule

Respect the Forest and enjoy!

- Guest must wear foot gear that they feel is adequate for the walk.
- We have beautiful natural walking paths. Guests must watch where they are walking and exercise caution. There are no boardwalks.
- Guest must walk on the tracks provided and leave the ecosystem undisturbed.
- No bird or animal is to be chased.
- Sudden weather changes occur and may cause paths to become slippery and for trees and branches to fall.
- Adults must supervise children in their care.
- The park is a natural lighting area, with artificial glare control.
- The park accepts no responsibility for any accidents including those due to lack of supervision and failure to obey instructions
